

Ishan Johnson is the newly appointed Associate Director of Development, Major Gifts with Chicago Opera Theater. In his previous position as Manager of Auxiliary Relations for Chicago History Museum, he successfully raised over $1 million for the capital campaign, exhibitions, and special projects. His fundraising career began in with Snow City Arts, and he also served as the Development Assistant with the Marwen Foundation. He is AFP Chicago's 2019 Chamberlain Scholar, and recently completed our fellows program. Ishan is a former opera singer, and received his B.M. from Boston University.