

Carly Stacy has been an active volunteer with Chicago Foundation for Women since 2018, serving as member and co-chair of the LGBTQ Giving Council, as well as sitting on CFW's program committee and the Anti-Racism Transformation Team. Carly is an experienced project leader who has worked in both the non-profit and for-profit sector and seeks to create spaces that are equitable, embrace change, and center relationship. On the LGBTQ Giving Council she joins in fellowship to disrupt traditional models of philanthropy through collective giving that supports community-created and community-sustained efforts advancing gender, racial, and economic justice.