

Adam Parker joined The Ark, a social service agency providing wraparound services to Chicagoland's Jewish community, as Director of Development in July 2021. He previously served as Director of Campaigns & Special Gifts at the Latin School of Chicago, where he led major and planned giving programs and developed leadership giving programs inclusive of annual, capital, endowment, and planned gifts. Adam previously served as Assistant Director of Major & Principal Gifts at Shedd Aquarium and began his development career at the Masorti Foundation in New York.