

Christina Bourné

Christina Bourné is an accomplished fundraising and nonprofit professional specializing in board and staff development, annual and capital campaign planning, program development, diversity equity and inclusion (DEI) implementation, and strategic planning. With a 15-year career, Christina has significantly impacted arts and culture, education, youth services, and social justice sectors.

Christina's leadership extends to her consultancy work with Evolve Giving Group and her contributions as a founding member and Program Manager for Enrich Chicago - an arts led organization aimed at undoing racism in the sector. She has held significant roles, including Director of Education and Creative Engagement at the Auditorium Theatre and Interim Executive Director of Muntu Dance Theatre. Her commitment to building individual and organizational capacity through sustainable change management frameworks is evident in her community-centered approach.

Currently, Christina serves as the Director of Development for Forward Momentum Chicago, Adjunct Consultant with Evolve Giving Group, member of the Arts Leadership Council at Arts Alliance Illinois, and Board Chair of Awakenings Art.
