

Amelia Garza, MA, CFRE

Amelia Garza (she/hers) is an Associate Director of Major Gifts at Rush University Medical Center where she partners with the Neurological Sciences, Pediatrics, and ENT teams. Over the past year, Amelia has also spent her time raising essential funds for Rush's COVID-19 efforts. She feels honored to serve as the Co-Chair for AFP Chicago's IDEAs Committee and the LatinX Affinity Group. Amelia is an alumna of Augustana College, Texas Woman's University, and is also a current Baumhart Scholar at Loyola University Chicago's Quinlan School of Business. She has also co-authored two published works with Jennifer Holmes which can be found in Advancing Philanthropy: Fundraiser Bill of Rights - Creating Equitable Partnerships and Office Culture and Wellbeing: Why Hiring Diverse Candidates is Not Step One.