

John Sagos Bio

John Sagos has served as Board President of Third Coast Baroque, "Chicago's most accomplished period instrumentalists and singers." (Chicago Tribune), for the past six years. In addition to serving as Board President of Third Coast Baroque, John also served as Treasurer for the Chicago School of Violin Making. He is a retired IT professional, having worked for Baxter Healthcare Corporation for over 30 years. His career spanned from Sales and Marketing systems development to project management to corporate financial systems team management. John earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Boston University's School of Management with a concentration in Management Information Systems. He also studied Viola Performance with Burton Fine at the New England Conservatory of Music. John has played professionally with the Northwest Indiana Symphony and the Elgin Symphony. While no longer playing professionally, he is still an avid amateur chamber musician on both viola and violin. John has a true passion for the arts, enjoying the creative aspect of performing music, and as a patron of the arts.
