

Lisa Hanneman

Lisa Hanneman joined Youth Services as Development Director in 2016, responsible for overseeing the agency's development program and aggressive fundraising growth demands. She has oversight of Youth Service's various fundraising revenue lines, volunteer operations, and donor outreach initiatives. Lisa brings fundraising, events, stewardship and communications expertise after a variety of development roles with JDRF and Connections for Abused Women and their Children (CAWC). She is a graduate of University of Iowa with a BA in English with minors in Creative Writing, Psychology and Women's Studies and participated in the International Irish Writing Program at Trinity College in Dublin.