

Carl L. Williams Sr. | Founder, President & CEO

Carl L. Williams, Sr., is President and Chief Executive Officer of 20/twenty Strategic Consultants. An expert in nonprofit leadership, strategic planning, board engagement, and fund development, Carl has provided the vision and leadership that has contributed to the rapid and focused growth of many organizations across the nation.

20/twenty Strategic Consultants is a leading consulting company focused solely on Education and Non-Profit business innovation. This positions 20/twenty for a National Reach in the consulting marketplace and establishes them as a thought leader on nonprofit innovation.

Additionally, Carl has led local, state, and national training seminars in more than 34 states that provide a clear vision for nonprofit growth and sustainability.

A former K-12 and Higher Education Administrator and K-12 Human Resources professional, Carl draws from his experience in the field to reinforce 20/twenty's authentic commitment to improving nonprofit and education business practices and outcomes.