

Megan Pratt

Megan Pratt joined The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International in 2014. In her current role as Donor Stewardship Officer, she manages a portfolio of the top 50 donors worldwide, delivering highly customized and engaging experiences, as well as leading the communications strategy and planning for endowed fund donors and members of the Arch Klumph and Legacy Societies. She previously led the Foundation's donor events for four years, including galas, keynotes at annual Rotary International conventions, recognition ceremonies at Rotary World Headquarters, and webinars and other virtual events. Megan is an active member of the Association of Donor Relations Professionals (ADRP), is a current member of the Marketing/Communications committee, and co-chaired the Midwest Regional Conference in 2022 and 2023.
