

Kristienne Hanna is currently the Director of Development at Advance Illinois, an independent policy and advocacy organization working to strengthen our state's public education system. Through her previous work as a fundraising operations director and grants consultant, she has nearly 20 years of extensive experience generating revenue streams to develop and sustain critical, life-changing programs for social service, healthcare and workforce development organizations. Kristienne has served on the board of the Chicago Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals since 2016, most recently as the 2020 Chapter President. She has been an active AFP Chicago volunteer for more than 10 years, previously serving on both the marketing and Midwest Conference committees, as well as the SVP, Communications/External Relations. She holds a B.A. in Journalism and Mass Communications from Drake University, and an MBA from North Park University. She lives in the Norwood Park neighborhood with her husband, Christopher and three children.
