Biography

Ann Grant is a nonprofit leader with experience in fundraising and strategic planning. Ann's passion starts with people, building relationships, and supporting organizations to help them envision and become their best.

Ann joined the YMCA of Metropolitan Chicago in 2023 as their Vice President, Philanthropic Impact, overseeing the individual giving team supporting 14 YMCA community hubs and five camps. Ann enjoys mentoring development professionals and serving on the Association of Fundraising Professionals Chicago Chapter's Board of Directors. She is proud to have been the first female South Asian president of the chapter.

Before joining the YMCA of Metro Chicago, she worked for a management consulting firm and nonprofits, including the American Association of Neurological Surgeons, Easterseals National Office, and the Adler Planetarium. She graduated from Northern Illinois University and resides in Chicago with her husband and their golden retriever.
