

Amy Funk, Senior Vice President

Amy Funk brings over two decades of high energy, results-driven nonprofit leadership to her clients. She helps nonprofits refine their mission driven storytelling, maximize their revenue, and ensure that infrastructure is in place for capacity building. With a keen eye for numbers and an ability to spot what needs to be done to enhance the bottom line, her work pairs high end strategy with sustainable operational practices. She has a passion for reinventing processes and has worked with over 20 organizations whose budgets ranged from $1.2 to $40 million in the performing arts, healthcare, and human services fields. Recent clients include the International Peace Garden, Meals on Wheels of Northern Illinois, Renaissance Theaterworks, and Youth Job Center.

Amy has a Bachelor of Arts in History from Millikin University and earned a Master's degree in Nonprofit Management, with distinction, from DePaul University in June 2012. Mentoring development professionals is a key passion of hers, and she serves on the Peer Mentoring Committee of the Association of Fundraising Professionals Chicago Chapter and DePaul University's Alumni Engagement Committee, School of Public Service. She also leads the Annual Fellows Program of the Development Leadership Consortium, which introduces new development professionals to the philanthropic community in Chicago.
