

Kathy Slaughter

Kathy brings passion, integrity and a commitment to excellence to her role as Chief Development Officer at YWCA Evanston/North Shore. She joined the YWCA in 2009 and oversees private giving and public funding. During her tenure Kathy has been instrumental in helping YWCA increase its funding base, diversify its funding streams, grow its endowment, and successfully complete an $18.5M capital campaign. Prior to joining YWCA, Kathy had roles in marketing and grants management at the Evanston Community Foundation. A native of Atlanta, GA, Kathy has a bachelor's degree from Georgia Tech, an MBA from Columbia University, and a Certificate in Nonprofit Management from Northwestern University. She and her husband Bob are active in the Evanston community and are the proud parents of two daughters.
