

Tad Druart

Tad Druart, VP of Marketing, has more than 25 years of experience in marketing and corporate communications in the technology and social good sectors. His professional career began in the nonprofit arena, serving in a variety of professional roles with Special Olympics, Texas. He then went on to lead marketing, corporate communications, and investor relations efforts at the likes of Texas State University, Dell, Convio and Compass Learning. Tad currently serves on the Board of Trustees and as Alumni Association President for his alma mater, Newman University in Wichita, Kansas.