

Tula Gogolak is Manager, Development and Strategic Initiatives at the Easterseals National Office in Chicago. Tula's career has offered her the amazing opportunity to work for organizations that care about the community and give families security, health and hope.

Involvement in the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) Chicago represents her belief in applying best practices to advance generosity and positive social change which improve and enrich lives.