

Doug London Bio

Doug has invested his entire career in the service of nonprofit organizations, helping them elevate their performance to successfully deliver on their missions. As a Senior Vice President of CCS, the largest fundraising management and consulting firm in the world, Doug serves as a trusted partner to signature clients and is a member of the leadership team that oversees the firm's 350+ consulting staff.

Since joining CCS in 2013, Doug has designed, advised, and directed development initiatives and capital campaigns that have raised more than $2B, strengthening communities, and positively impacting tens of thousands of lives. He has partnered organizations across the country including Be The Match Foundation, Detroit Country Day School, Obama Foundation, St. Louis Children's Hospital Foundation, and University of Texas Health Science Center. He also spearheaded the creation of CCS's first LGBTQI+ employee resource group and continues to serve as the group's leader.

Doug is an active alumnus of Lake Forest College and currently provides leadership as their President. Additionally, he is the Vice President of the Alzheimer's Association Illinois Chapter Junior Board.
