

Rona Fernandez is dedicated to helping social justice non-profits fully integrate fundraising into their work. She has a deep connection to racial justice work in particular, after working for a decade with educational equity group Californians for Justice. A graduate of the Grassroots Institute for Fundraising Training, Rona is a Senior Consultant at Klein & Roth Consulting, a core member of the People of Color Sustainable Housing Network, and serves on the board of Filipino Advocates for Justice.