

Cecelia Caspram, Founder/Principal of Mission Growth Partners, is a master's-level social worker who has been helping nonprofits raise their necessary revenue for well over a decade – which already amounts to millions of dollars collaboratively raised. She has deep experience in meaningful, productive individual donor relations; successful public and private grant proposal writing; and general strategy and planning for fund development. She has worked with both small and large organizations, always with an entrepreneurial mindset that seeks to maximize resources and efficiency. Her MSW is from UW-Milwaukee and she has a BA in English from the College of Saint Benedict/Saint John's University. She currently serves on the board of the Association of Fundraising Professionals' Minnesota Chapter and is in her second year as Chair of its IDEA (Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Access) Committee.
